

Calendar back on sale

Sell-out successes are few and far between in the current climate – but the Oughterard Heritage Group's 2010 calendar had to go for a second print run after the original batch proved so popular.

Now the Heritage Calendar is back in the shops in Oughterard and Moycullen – and the committee, who are still celebrating their overall win in the Golden Mile Awards, would like to thank everyone for their support to date.