

DOUGHTERARD SHOW

DOUGHTERARD Agricultural, Horticultural and Industrial Show held in the town on Sunday proved one of the biggest successes ever for the organising committee.
From early morning the town was paced with tourists and competitors and both helped make the Show the most rewarding event of the year on the local calendar.

Entries in most classes were up on previous years and the crowd pulling potential of the event was further underlined again this year by the number of prizes going. These came from various Galway firms and also from National organisations who thought it worth their while to spend money donating prizes and cups to Oughterard.

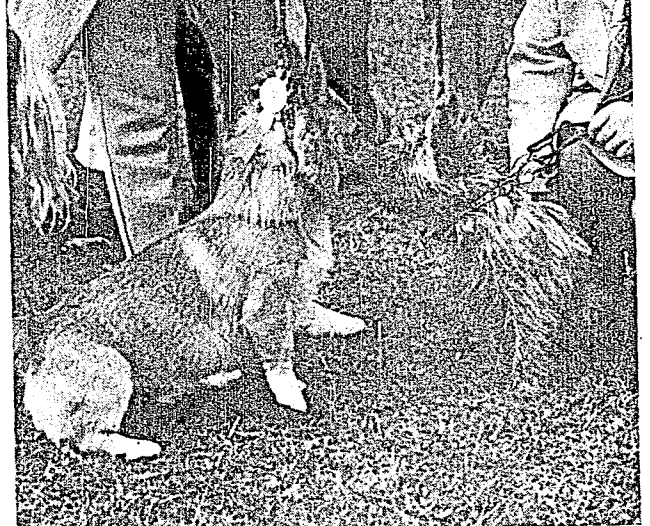

Prizes in the Sheep and Cattle classes were presented by Hygeia of Dublin, Osmonds of Dublin and Cooper, McDougall and Robertson also of Dublin. Champions Pony of Show: This was won by a horse owned by Johnny Lee of Moycullen and the trophy was presented by Tom Welby of Oughterard.
